

Masters: 11

Student	Country	Topic
France Nxumalo	South Africa	Knowledge, Attitudes, Beliefs and Practices of Refractive Error by School going children of the Inanda, Ntuzuma and KwaMashu areas in Durban, KwaZulu-Natal
Keshia Chetty	South Africa	An evaluation of the accuracy of the Moorfields Motion Displacement Tester (MMDT)
Kenneth Adjah	Ghana	Compliance among Glaucoma patients in Ghana
Eunice Frempong	Ghana	Barriers to eye care utilization and potential strategies to improve follow up
Emmanuel Tawaiah Nartey	Ghana	Ocular morbidities among primary school children in Ashaiman Municipal, Greater Accra Region, Ghana
Dinesh Kaphle	Malawi	Impact of visual impairment due to refractive error on quality of life in adults in Lilongwe, Malawi
Percy Boateng Ampeh	Ghana	Knowledge and barriers to the use of the white cane in the Ashanti region of Ghana.
Sylvester Kyeremeh	Ghana	Low Vision Services in Ghana: the Availability and Accessibility as Emphasis
Elizabeth Akpaki	Ghana	Visual impairment among primary school children in the Berekum Municipal, Brong Ahafo Region, Ghana.
Abdy Nyembo	Tanzania	Barriers to access low vision services in Tanzania
Beatrice Adamptey	Ghana	The impact of low vision and low vision devices or Aids on the quality of life of low vision patients visiting the low vision centre of the Eastern Regional hospital of Ghana.

PhD's: 14

Student	Country	Topic
Diane Wallace	South Africa	An Evaluation of Implementation Methods Adopted in the Development of a Regional School of Optometry in Mozambique: Lessons for Expansion of the Model
Vanessa Moodley	South Africa	Development of a Framework for the Recruitment, Retention and Legislative Support of a Regional Multiple Entry and Exit Optometry Programme
Percy Mashige	South Africa	An Analysis of Productivity Loss due to Visual Impairment (tentative)
Bernadine Nsa Ekpenyong	Nigeria	Assessment of eye health status of school age children in Cross River State , Nigeria
Geoffrey Wabulembo	Uganda	Developing a human resource strategy for Uganda for Eye Health
Emilenne Epee	Cameroon	Impact of refractive error on school children
Emmanuel Okenwa	Nigeria / Kenya	Prevalence of Childhood Visual Impairment and Barriers to the Uptake of Refractive Error and Low Vision Services among School-Aged Children of Kakamega County, West Kenya
Saif Alrasheed	Sudan	Prevalence of visual impairment and development of a child eye care plan in South Darfur State of Sudan.
Christopher Onunkwor	Nigeria	Cost effectiveness of screening for diabetic retinopathy
Anitha Arvind	India	Ophthalmic Anthropometry for spectacle frames in the Adult and Paediatric population in Central India
Anne Ebri	Nigeria	Evaluating the impact of vision centres in Nigeria

Ving Fai Chan	Malaysia	Development of a psychosocial assessment tool for school learners with vision impairment due to uncorrected refractive error
Dorcas Waindim	Cameroon	Traditional Eye Care Practices and the Development of a Health Promotion Strategy in Funding Health District of Cameroon
Anand Sudhan	India	Societal perspectives and a comparison of sustainability and cost effectiveness of different service delivery models at primary levels for refractive error services.

Students going through UKZN Registration: 6

Student	Country	Topic
Amassagou Dougnon	Mali
Martin Kisenge	Kenya
Julius Rono	Kenya
Nora Sefula	Kenya
Abraham keter	Kenya
Samuel Chagwadira	Malawi
Rajendra Gwayali	Nepal

SAQA:

Student	Country	Topic
Rosemond Attobrah	Ghana	